Funeral of Mrs. Baden Takes Place Wednesday

Mrs. Frances Henshaw Baden, widow of Thomas Edwin Baden, will be buried tomorrow in Congressional Cemetery. Mrs. Baden died yesterday afternoon at the home of her son-in-law, William M. Netherland, 1332 Riggs place northwest, from heart failure, in her seventy-sixth year. Her health had been failing for a long time.

Mrs. Baden was the half-sister to Mrs. E. D. E. N. Southworth, the Georgetown novelist, who was well known in literary circles here in her younger days. Mr. and Mrs. Baden came to Washington soon after their marriage. They were on intimate terms with President Lincoln and his family during his administration.

She is survived by three married daughters, Mrs. A. Maurice Low, now in Los Angeles, Cal.; Mrs. Guy Carlton, of Asheville, N. C., and Mrs. Marvin C. Custer, of this city.
